“ My memories of Audrey are of her as my aunt. She was my mother's older sister, and my mother always looked up to her and held her in high regard. I don't know much about Audrey's earlier life, but my mother, JoAnn did share that Audrey was an executive secretary for the Clark Candy Company in Pittsburgh, and that she was a fantastic typist.

We often visited their idyllic farmhouse home in Mars, PA for Thanksgiving or Christmas. I remember the center of activity was usually the kitchen - a large country kitchen with a pantry room. She tended a large garden that supplied fresh vegetables for the family. She seemed always thoughtful and considerate as well as capable. We often played bridge with everyone taking part. Audrey was a dear aunt, and I have fond memories of her and her family. My condolences to Kathy and Marla and their families, as well as all family members and loved ones.

“ Audrey was an amazing woman! A loving wife, mother, sister, grandmother and aunt! She was the best cook I have ever known! She always made others feel welcome, and she always gave a beautiful smile! I always looked forward to visiting with her, and she will be greatly missed! I was honored to have been named after her, and share her middle name "Evelyn". I love you dearly aunt Audrey, and you will forever be in my heart and mind.

“ A class act and quite the lady. Audrey always took proud in her appearance and looked many years younger than her actual age. Her home was always well-kept, orderly, and stylish. She loved to garden and cook, and was old-school in that when you sat down at her table it was usually to formal place settings complemented with a beauty flower arrangement, and lite candles. She loved to travel and go places she had never been to before, especially with her family. And when she traveled by car (usually at high speeds if she was the driver), much to my amazement: she packed down pillows for her family to enjoyed along the way. She produced a beauty family of girls: Pammy, now gone, who was the center of the family, and is greatly missed; Marla who is kind and giving, and shares the gift of gab; Caroline, young gone - before I know Audrey's family; and my beautiful, special wife Kathy, the baby of the family who misses her mom terribly. And to Frank, Audrey's beloved husband, gone nearly 20 years who loved to play cards and was Audrey's bridge partner. And to Richard, Audrey beloved companion, gone now several years. Quite a lady and quite a special family.
