“ BARBARA was a wonderful educator, coworker and friend. She touched so many lives through her teaching, conversations, church involvement and being a good friend. You are so missed by many in your community, family and friends. We grieve your passing and knowing, you never got to enjoy your retirement here on earth, however Barbara is now enjoying the ULTIMATE RETIREMENT WITH OUR LORD. Rest my friend in the Presence of our Lord.... a rest well deserved.... I know you are enjoying your ETERNAL RETIREMENT WITH THE LORD.

“ Barbara was my wonderful and loving sister who was always there when I needed her. She was also a wonderful and loving aunt to my beautiful son Andrew and he appreciated very much her attending his graduation, the birthdays and Christmases she could and all the cards when she couldn't. Barbara was such a thoughtful sister and she is already dearly missed, especially all the laughter we shared. My thoughts and prayers for strength and healing go out to my beautiful niece Jen, Jen's husband Joe and my great nephew Jonathan and great niece Erin.
