I'm so sorry to hear about your Dad. My grandparents, Mall and Eulah Breedlove and my Parents Russell and Jean Breedllove Curry, thought the world of your parents. I can remember you being at the Breedllove Family Reunions we use to have at Grandma Nora Breedllove house. Our family keeps loosing our rocks of our families that held us all together. May you find comfort and peace in Gods love.

Rest easy, Uncle Joe. You were the last person to call me Christa Bug. I'll never forget the fun days at the farm when you would throw me in the pool or drive us on bumpy roads while we bounced around and laughed in the back of the pick-up truck. I Remember when you, Aunt Mary and Joe Eddy came to stay with us after dad died. Please give him a hug for me. I'm sure you are all rejoicing as you are together once again. Love, Christa Bug

Uncle Joe has always been a part of my life for as long as I can remember and was always a favorite. Though he was a quiet man generally, I loved his laugh, his big hugs and the way he would tease me and he would rather tease my mom more than anyone. He loved hamburgers and Pepsi and grandma always added a roast to Thanksgiving dinner just for him. My parents, Betty and Giles Breedlove, thought so much of Uncle Joe and he would always be their brother in law . He will be missed but forever loved!
