“ Dear Mark, Kim and Amy,

The pictures of your Dad show a man who's had a good life: a proud young man in uniform, ready and able to serve his country; a loving husband and father, and finally a man who, having paid his dues and earned his happiness, is bouncing a grand baby on his knee. This is as good as it gets in this life on earth. May he find untold riches in Heaven.

He was quiet. One could sense he was a GOOD man in the community. I've let my girls know of your loss and they send condolences. I'm in a writers' critiquing group with Mike Fitzgerald, jr. I told him of the obit. He was sorry to hear. Your name comes up occasionally, Mark, in our meetings. Mike has mentioned college and you, his roommate, actually, a few times over the years.

I've been thinking of your family with this brutal weather (I love the snow, though). I'm hoping the weather conditions will improve and not be so miserable for all of you tomorrow. Support one another, as you always have, and know that your many friends in the community send their love and support.

Thinking of you with Love and Prayers,
Jerrie Kent and family--Julie, Sara, and Tammy
