“ Dear Mrs. O'Dell and Flem's family, I worked with Flem at KCHD since 1996. I liked and respected him very much. I was impressed by his ability to have the restaurant owners still like him even after they had just received a bad inspection. I am 20 years younger than he was and I remember telling him that when I grow up I want to be just like him, loved by his family and liked and respected by everybody. David Winowich

“I always looked to see this faithful quiet man beside his wife on Sunday mornings in our ABF at Bible Center Church. He had such a calm presence, he reminded me of my grandfather and I always wanted to be around him. He took such good care of my “beautiful Helen” as I call her. Prayers of comfort for Helen and the family as they face these days without home, but know he is rejoicing at the biggest birthday party of all this week. We love you. The Cartes.

“ To Helen, Jill. Scott and David, I am sorry you've had to say goodbye to your Husband, Brother and Dad. Boys I remember you when I was your principal at Cross Lanes many years ago. Flem's dad and my dad were first cousins. May God's grace carry you gently through this very sad time. God bless you my friends.

“ I have only been the neighbor of the O'Dells for a little over a year and I could honestly write a book on these beautiful people. I am so honored and grateful for the time we had Flem as our neighbor. No words can explain this beautiful soul. I'm still in shock. I send love light and prayers to Helen and the family.

“ Seeing Flem and Helen in church on Sundays was always a highlight for me! They'd be there early enough to listen to us rehearse for the service and then have time to chat. I always enjoyed our conversations. Such a sweet man. As heartbreaking and devastating as his loss is we know he is rejoicing in listening to Heaven's choir today and with his Savior. Praying for you, Miss Helen. Love you!
