

Janette Y. Garton Luikart

July 17, 1933 - November 6, 2020

Janette Yvonne Garton Luikart of Paradise went home to be with her Lord and Savior Friday, November 6, 2020 at her home following complications from a stroke.

Born July 17, 1933, she was one of six children born to the late Dewey Dewitt Talmadge Garton and Vera Claire Blake Garton. She was also preceded in death by her siblings, Dewey T. Garton, Jr. "Junior" (Marian); Gerald Sylvester Garton "Ves" (Margaret); William Benton Garton "Billy"; Shirley Edith Immell (Allan); as well as her husband of 58 years, Dale A. Luikart and a great-grandson, Colten Dale Luikart.

She and Dale were married and "went to housekeeping" April 9, 1950 in a little community known as Paradise and there they raised their five children on the family farm now known as the Triple L that has supported six generations of Luikart's. A homemaker in every sense of the word, her home-style cooking and baking was wonderful and enjoyed by family, friends and neighbors. She would use her talents with quilting, crochet and embroidery to make each of her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren a quilt, baby blanket, afghan or doilies to use and cherish. These were gifts given with love and purpose, and she expected them to be used and was delighted in the fact that they were.

Hoodley, as she was known to many, was a born again Christian and attended Bowles Ridge Community Church until her health did not allow her to do so. There, she taught Sunday School and was active with Vacation Bible School and various Bible Study groups.

Surviving are her children, Donnie and Luella Luikart of Paradise; Vicky and Keith Derrick of Poca; Diane and Greg Kesling of Charleston; Ronnie and Beverly Luikart of Eleanor and Michael and Kate Luikart of Winfield. She was "Maw-Maw" to her grandchildren; Christopher and Janice Luikart; Jeremy and Charity Luikart, Dale and Tanya Luikart, Amber and Rudy Rodriguez, Kristy and Keith Roberts, Kelly and Kenny Smith, Lucas Kesling, Jesse and David Holsten, Tucker Kesling, Stephen Luikart and Maggie Bumgardner, Stacy and Chad Soice and Patrick Luikart. She was "Granny" to her great-grandchildren, Dylan and Emma Luikart; Jasmine Luikart; Kaitlyn, Courtney and Kasen Luikart; Lila and Everly Rodriguez; Zoey Myers, Derrick and Reed Roberts; Jordan, Addison and Hayden Smith; Abraham Kesling, Parker and Charli Holsten; Alexandra Plate and Delania Luikart; Jaxon and Jacey Soice. She is also survived by her brother and sister-in-law, Jack and Sharon Garton of Steele Ridge and several nieces and nephews as well as her great friend, Linda Bennett of Paradise.

Respecting the State and Federal COVID-19 guidelines, a private service will be held and she will be laid to rest with her husband at Wade Chapel United Methodist Church Cemetery, Red House. You may also visit her Tribute page at ChapmanFuneralHomes.com to share memories and offer condolences to the family.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donations to Down Syndrome Awareness in support of her great-granddaughter, Lila Belle. Contributions may be made payable and sent to Michael Luikart, PO Box 731, Winfield, WV 25213 and will be given to Amber for distribution.

The family would like to thank her grandchildren, Tucker and Amber as well as Hospice Care, specifically Reba Smith, Connie Boggs, Heather Shaw, Melissa Boggess, Jennifer Kirsh and Jenny Ford for their skills, love and compassion during this time.

Chapman Funeral Home, family-owned and located at 12848 Winfield Road, Winfield is honored to serve the Luikart family.

“ It was an honor (an the best part of my life) growing up with the your family. Ronnie and I were always into something and your mom made me feel part of the family. Good to know that she is a believer. She is absent for now but also just a blink away. Prayers for your family. Our heart is with you.

“ Mamaw Hoodley was one of a kind! A perfect example of what a Christian Lady should be! The example that she leaves behind is one like no other.

Mamaws motto was “What goes on at Mamaw is just fine!” Lane go his first ice cream, his first chocolate and his first Reese cup! You didn't correct her because she was quick to tell you that it was her house.

She will be missed! I can hear her now saying” I beat you here!” Love all of you as if you were my family. Hugs and prayers, Jennifer Parkins

“ I agree with Luella, when I married into the Luikart family in 1973 I was blessed to gain another Mom and Dad. I never felt like an in-law, but like one of their own sons. I called them Mom and Dad and Mom always called me son, Dad usually called me Keith-boy, but that was his way of letting me know he loved me. Their were times that Mom took up for me rather than Vicky. To Donnie, Diane, Ronnie, and Michael, I love each of you just like brothers and sister. Mom was ready and longing to go Home, we will all miss her, but she will always be in our hearts. Each of us mourn her passing in our own way, but by God's grace we know that she is absent from the body, but present with the Lord.

“ I send my heartfelt condolences to the Luikart family. Your mother's greatest legacy is her five honest, caring, hard working, principled children who continue to instill in their children and grandchildren these same wonderfully important values. I am most grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Luikart for giving me my best friend - one of life's true treasures. Go in peace Janette Yvonne.

Luella luikart - November 06, 2020 at 06:01 PM

“ Just wanted to say how very sorry i am that your mom, maw-maw, and grandma passed away. Although i didnt know her all that well, her light shines through the family members i do know. That in itself, is a blessing because she lived a life that lives on through her family, even if she is no longer on this earth. That kind of life, God so loves. I pray God gives u all comfort and strength for the days ahead. Love youMary Davis Selvaraj
