“ Mary Cae was always so full of life and energy. She was so kind; willing to help anyone. She was so totally and openly honest. What you saw was what you got. There was no subterfuge in her. Mary Cae loved God and wasn't afraid to share it. She was an inspiration to walk closer with Him. She was a woman of faith, love, and honesty. She was loved dearly by her family. She will be deeply missed.

“ Mary Cae was one (if not the) kindest person I've ever known. She always though of others first. When I'd leave the room after her massage, often I'd hear her praying for me. That about sums it up; she was, and will always be, dear to me.

“ I worked with Mary Cae at the DHHR. She was a wonderful lady who really cared about those less fortunate. She made it her business to offer encouraging words and prayers when I most needed it. I know she is in her heavenly home but she will surely be missed by those in her earthly home. Love and prayers for her family.

“ I worked as a counselor at Camp Tygart with Mary Cae. She loved the kids and the outdoors. Mary Cae had a great sense of humor, pitched in whenever there was a job to be done, and led by example. I am very sorry to read of her passing.

“ Mary Cae had the BEST laugh in the world! I also worked with her at Camp Tygart back in the 70's. While I had not seen her in many years, I am not surprised to hear how faith-filled and loving her life was. She walked the walk back in the day, and did that always. I will miss her. Raymond Godwin

“ Mary Cae was a wonderful friend from our teenage days on staff at Camp Tygart. Her laughter, her joy, her dancing, her love and concern for the kids in our charge have had a last impression on me. May her memory be a blessing.

“ We dearly loved Mary Cae and are so sad she is gone for the sake of all those still here, but know she is in the best place ever now and so happy for her. We went to church with her at both Vineyard and Maranatha and also spent time together at each others homes. We love her and her entire family. They are a truly wonderful group of people. I was always so happy to see Mary Cae and we could talk for hours about everything. She was a shining light in this world, who always pointed people to Christ and lived a life of prayer. She will be greatly missed by so many, but we know we will see her again.

“ Mary Cae was my neighbor and friend. A sweet person that I enjoyed knowing and talking with on occasions. She was faith filled and loved God. Will miss seeing her out walking with her mom or riding her bike, out and about in the neighborhood. Last time I was with her we hugged, prayed and cried together. She had lost her mom and I had lost my mother in law, she comforted ME when the idea was for me to comfort HER. She and her mom prayed with me on several occasions. Hard for me to look next door and not miss them, they were loving people and good neighbors. RIP Mary Cae am happy you will hurt no more and can dance in God's kingdom and rest in His care.
