“ HOW DO YOU SAY GOODBYE TO A LITTLE SISTER?

When you were born I was the happiest big sister alive,
After years of begging and waiting, you finally arrived.

Often I told you I was your “real” mother,
You were greatly loved, also, by Roger, our brother.

Frequently sick with asthma, giving the family a fright,
Our parents took turns holding and rocking you all night.

Learning early to count, write and read,
Always a perfect straight A student, indeed.

Exhibited great love for your family and your many critters,
Loved to sing, learned to play the piano from Mrs. Lively in Smithers.

We joked we were twins born eight years apart,
Finished each others sentences, connected at the heart.

From First Grade through College, too quickly went the years,
Marriage, precious children, choir director, teaching/counseling career.

Helping anyone/critters with a need, “Ellie Mae” and Rick were extremely generous,
Always putting others first, sometimes with recognition, other times anonymous.

Enjoying early retirement with your wonderful husband, Rick,
Hateful cancer attacked your body, along with chemo, making you sick.

Many prayers for your healing and I would have happily taken your place,
You told me you didn’t ask “why me”, rather “why not me”, accepting with grace.

Totally out of sequence, reading your obituary is stunningly painful,
Anticipating I’d go first, I feel I’m peering from a huge black hole.

Several of your childhood friends are honoring you this day,
Seems like yesterday with Barbie’s you would play.

With wounded, heavy hearts we grieve,
It’s devastating to watch a loved one leave.

Although Rita was prepared and ready to go,
It’s okay to reflect and let the tears flow.

As time softens the loss and healing hearts reconcile,
May treasured memories bring many smiles.

No longer in pain, you received your eternal reward,

Hugging Nick/Buddy Lee, directing the Heavenly Choir with your Savior and Lord.

Forever in my heart.

Love, Gail

“ The Clonches lived next door to us and are lifelong friends. My most vivid memory of Rita was her beautiful engaging smile and, of course, her love of animals. The Myers Family is grieving because we loved her. From Sherry Myers Lipps

“ Rick, Molly, and Brett, I am so sorry for the loss of Rita. I worked with her for many years at KCS (as well as Rick and Molly for a shorter duration). Rita was such a warm and compassionate individual and I so enjoyed working with her prior to her retirement. It was also a joy to meet up with her again in one of our shared schools as she continued to spend time with the children following her retirement. There will never be another Rita. Such a treasure! Such a huge loss!

“ Our household sends love, thoughts & prayers for Rita's human family & fur babies. Although we never got to meet in person we talked quite a bit as rescue fosters. She was a awesome lady. I have no doubt her arrival at the Rainbow Bridge was ushered in by a multitude of fur babies. Chris, Duane & AJ Curtis

“ I am so devastated at Rita's passing. I loved her dearly and will treasure my memories of her. I loved visiting and seeing how many dogs we could get on the sofa with all of us sitting there. Will always remember the memories of all of our rescue days and the dogs we saved. She was a truly good, kind and caring person. May God give you all strength in what lies ahead.
