

Addison Michelle "Addi" Hazlett

October 16, 2009 - February 6, 2016

The celestial gates of Heaven opened wide on Saturday, February 6, 2016 to welcome gorgeous, six-year-old Addison Michelle Hazlett, daughter of Ashley and Shannon Hazlett of Scott Depot. Among those to greet her were her grandmother, Michelle Childers Allen and her aunt, Sue King.

To know "Addi" was to love her. From her bright smile and kind heart, to those captivating blue eyes, she was full of life. She loved school and her classmates; enjoyed playing T-Ball and spent a great deal of time with her special cousins, Evan, Hannah, Carleigh, Devin and David as well as her adorable brother, two-year-old Grayson Michael Hazlett.

In addition to her parents, brother and cousins, Addi is survived by her grandparents, Larry Allen (Val), Glenn Hazlett (Lesh), Laura Hazlett (Rick Boggess); great-grandparents, Delbert and Glenna Childers, Larry and Marsha Allen and Donna Higginbotham; as well as several aunts and uncles.

Addi had a spark that was undeniable, and with just a flutter of those long eyelashes, she could steal anyone's heart. It is therefore with broken spirits that we say farewell to our angel and ask for your continued prayers for our family.

A celebration of her life will be held at 2pm Friday, February 12, 2016 at Judson Baptist Church, 1400 Bills Creek Road, Winfield with Pastor Bobby Goldsburg. She will be laid to rest in the church cemetery.

Family and friends may gather beginning at 1pm at the church. You may also visit www.chapmanfuneralhomes.com to share sympathies with the family.

Memorial contributions may be made in Addison's name at any local SunTrust branch.

Chapman Funeral Home, family-owned and located at 3941 Teays Valley Road, Hurricane is honored to assist Addi's family.
