“ *Mrs. Federer, Lesley, Julie, and entire family and friends,
May I extend my deepest sorrow upon the news of the death of Mr.
Federer. I have had opportunity to be able to talk with him and have felt privileged to read his college thesis. It was interesting and informative! What fascinated me the most was His native language.
In this life many dialects and languages that seemed to be spoken, but yet there is a distinction with every people. Thank The Good Lord communication goes beyond words. Take a look at expression!
God Looks Upon The Heart! I Love You All, and I'm sorry that I didn't hear sooner! Lesley and I have been best of friends and Julie!
May I someday be able to visit! You are in my thoughts and prayers!
Never forget that!
May God bring you comfort and peace to know that He Loves You more than anyone else can!
With Love and Prayers Always,

“ Adolf E. Federer, Feb 7, 1925 - Nov 21, 2018

Shared Memory of Adolf E. Federer by Bud Doc's Sidekick for years.

I just Got the News Sunday, but I have been trying to find out the Details from Andrea, the lady that bought [my Favorite Mentor] Doc & Carole's dream home at number 7 Blossom.

*Doc was highly successful and even more Proud of his 2 lovely pre-adolescent daughters Julie and Leslie, & as they became adults, he told me Public Knowledge info, about their jobs, husbands etc. & yet, With Lots of Calls & Emails about his lineage, The only grandchild we ever met in Person was VERY YOUNG Haden sp?
Then, after we had children, Doc helped teach my sons & their friends A Lot More about "Real Football" than Their Own Soccer Team Coaches. No trip to the Wave Pool was complete unless we stopped at "Cool Dr. Federer's".

I have Priceless Memories of The Good Old Days. His Ph D was written before I was born, & THE INDUSTRY STILL HAS NOT CAUGHT UP TO THAT TECHNOLOGY [USING ULTRAVIOLET light for PURE ASEPTIC = Cold Sanitizing without Pasteurization or UHT Ultra HighTemp Pasteurization. He said we Spoiled Americans did not appreciate the taste of raw & unburnt dairy products. He was wiser than most men on the Planet. It was an Honor to Be in the shadow of A True Genius.

Even as much as He Tried to Make me a 7 day per week "Work-a-holic" too, after years of Working Sunday through Late Friday nights, he said I had Finally Earned the right to be called a Dairyman!! Note: There was No Bigger Compliment that he could Give. Although his Jolly, Contagious Smirk & Boisterous Laugh, Would usually be followed by a quip about "Not being too bad at Labwork, & Using the Pearson square & Getting Batch Formulas done Correctly". That impressed him, for 1 of us "Damned Liberal Arts Majors"! LoL

When I got him To Start Using a Calculator instead of his Hallowed & Trusty "Slide Rule", I got a Pay Raise from Plant Manager Phil, for *saving butterfat *Pardon the Pun, [Fat content is The "Ca$h Cow" standard of paying for all Dairy Products.] Although a slide rule is an awesome tool [in its day], it could not keep up with the speed nor accuracy of electronics. I told him, it was almost like trying to use an [Arabic counting machine] Abacus for Math! I Challenged him jokingly for Quite a While, & Even when he acquiesced, he still kept a Slide Rule on his Desk, "Just in case".

He was an Entertaining, albeit opinionated guy, Especially on The traits & Opinions of fellow Europeans. For example, he refused to wear green or a shamrock for "Those Blasted Irishmen's" Saint Patrick's day. And also said that we virile Andersson brothers were just like all the other "Arrogant Swedes". . . . So, at least we came by that Honestly!

For decades after my Dairyman days, we called regularly to Check on him, & I Began Each Call by asking him the STANDARD & Urgent Dairyman's QUESTION (like he asked us DOZENS OF TIMES PER DAY!) "Hey Chief, WHAT'S THE FAT?" I was Never Disappointed at his Hearty Laugh.

He always taught me something New & Asked about my wife sons Neal & Gary by name. Although I CAN WAIT, I will be Glad to See him & my own family Beyond the Clouds, . . one Glad Morning when I "Fly Away" too!

FYI: We started Worrying when I got the phone company message that their landline was disconnected. So we left Several Notes, & Eventually Went from Door to Door and Left a Card with Several Folks who could not say anything other than they "Thought THEY BOTH had Moved?" Sadly, Andrea, the lady who bought the house, Finally Called & told me she knew nothing about him, except for he did not come to the closing when she bought the house. I was ready to track down the Realtor by Courthouse Records.

He will be missed by my 2 Eagle Scout sons & wife of 31 years Cyndi.

My heart is Broken & it's many pieces go out To the family & Friends!

I hope to see his Extended family, Thanks to the directions of Rachel from the funeral home today.

“ I remember when I first met Carole it was at her shop where I spent many hours drinking coffee. We use to joke that Adolf was not real as I knew Carole for months before I ever got to meet Adolf. Jeanie Currey and I use to joke that Carole had made him up. But when I finally did get to meet him I found him to be a delightful, energetic and intelligent man. Over the years as I have grown closer to the entire family I enjoyed watching him interact with his girls. One of the things I remember most was how he treated those girls. I knew one of them was adopted but could never remember which one and you could not tell by they way he treated both of them. He was a loving husband, father and grandfather. I am just glad I was able to see him a few weeks ago when I visited West Virginia.
