“ So sorry for your loss. I had the pleasure of working with Alex at the Naval Yard in Portsmouth Virginia. He was a great guy and we would go to the gym and work out on our lunch break. He loved his family dearly especially his father. He often talked about how his father used to work out with professional powerlifter Phil Pfister. You will be missed my friend.

“ My deepest condolences in the loss of your beautiful son, Alex. Such a tragedy and loss. My thoughts and prayers are with all of those Alex left behind. Cherish the memories of the good times and let God heal your pain. Grief is a process that can't be rushed. Give yourself time to grieve and know that, at some point in the distant future, the pain will not be as great as it is at this moment. Please be sure to share the happy memories with the children he left behind and keep him alive in their hearts and minds. Praying for strength and peace for all. May God bless and comfort all who loved Alex.

“ Alex was sooo special. We all think this about our own children but he truly was. He loved with all of his heart! His smile would melt your soul! His laugh warmed your insides! We grew up together. He was my buddy. He blessed me with two beautiful baby boys. I cannot express the pain, heartache, emptiness we are all feeling. I will not let his end define his life! He was such a good soul! He loved his children and his family. He was my biggest blessing!

You don't know me. Jane and I became friends when we were only 4 yrs old and lived on Lincoln Avenue. The last time I saw you, you were just a few years old. My heart aches for you and your family at such a difficult time. I pray God can ease the pain you are feeling and you can draw comfort from his children and wonderful memories.

“ Chris and Jenny, words cannot express how my heart aches for you both and the family. So many memories at the basketball court.... Wonderful young man ready to go home before we were ready for him to... I know that the next several months will be nothing more than a blurr but I'd be honored if you'd like to spend time chatting about our angels or Jenny.... about the silly things we did back when. I don't need to tell you what a wonderful presence it was being around your Alex and his memory will forever be in our hearts! Love ya bunches, Teresa, Isaac & Adrian.

Thank you Alex for your service to this country. We will always keep you in our hearts & all of our love to the family. Love, Dee & Deb

“ We have many fond memories of seeing Alex at the Williams/Robert reunions grow from a baby to the fine young man and father he became. I feel so very blessed getting to see him interact in such a loving way with his two sons this last September. He was such a gentle giant. I will treasure those memories. Susan and Steve
