“ I am so sorry for your loss, Allita was such a sweet person and had a bubbly personality even when she was sick. We will all cherish fond memories . My granddaughter loved her so much and will be crushed to hear she passed. She was one of the best teachers and loved her kids. Prayers for all the family, Janet Faulkner

“ *I am so truly sorry to hear of Allita's passing. She was a sweet friend to me although I didn't know her very long. May God put his loving arms around each one of you for He is the only one who comforts our hearts in time of grief. Will certainly be praying for the family in the difficult days to come. Love. So sorry to lose a sweet and loving friend as Allita. It was always good to see her smile and talk with her. We rejoice in her "home going" where we know that she is not suffering with pain and sickness. May the Lord's presence be very near to you, Gordon, in the coming days. Our love and prayers for you. -- Bill & Kitty Ellis
