“ Aunt Marie had a way of bringing sunshine into our lives with a song, with a testimony for the Lord, with a joke or a funny saying. She was a good listener and gave sound advice. She was an excellent cook -- made the best rolls! She had the heart of a servant, always looking out for the comfort of others. She was a hard worker. When my second daughter was born, our first was only 15 months old and Jim was working out of town. Aunt Marie came every day for a week to assist with housework, laundry, cooking...anything she could do to help me. Her kindness was unsolicited, but this act of love was certainly never forgotten. She stepped up to the plate for each of us cousins, as her siblings -- our mothers and fathers -- were taken from us. She became the anchor for our family. She put forth the effort to bring us together last summer. It was no easy task, but it meant the world to me! I will miss her faithful phone calls on my birthday each year. I will miss her laugh and her love. Certainly a piece of my heart left with her, but I am so thankful for the hope and the promise of seeing her again! She was a wonderful example to us all. Much love to all of the family! May you find comfort in your memories of this "treasure" God placed in our lives for a time, and peace in His Word as we look to Eternity.
