DH

I am deeply sorry to hear about Bid's death. He was a wonderful person. One of my fun memories from childhood is visiting on the farm with him and Bathelene. My dad loved Bid and I know Bid loved him too. Last time I saw Bid, several years ago, I talked with him about the Stone family and told him about my interest in genealogy. He said to come out and we would go to the Stone cemetery and he would tell me about the people buried there. Alas, I never took him up on the offer. Rest in peace, Bid. And to Glenn and all my Stone cousins, may God comfort you.
