“ I loved this lady from the very first time I met her. She was my second Momma and she was always sweet and loving toward me. I miss Momma Alyce terribly and will miss the stories she would tell me about her life. She was a wonderful person and a good christian. She told me in early February that she was going to Heaven, and I said I believe that. Heaven gained another beautiful angel when they came and took her home. There will always be a special place in my heart for Momma Alyce. I love and miss you. Your girls will always be there for each other. Thanks for my Sis.
