

Amy Maxine Colby

November 23, 1929 - February 9, 2017

Amy Maxine Colby, 87, of St. Albans passed away Thursday, February 9, 2017 at her home.

Born November 23, 1929 in Putnam County, she was a daughter of the late George Early and Edith Richards Mitchell. She was also preceded in death by her husband, R. Keith Colby, II; her sisters, Wanda Hanshaw and Hazel Pauley; brothers, Donald and John Mitchell.

Raised on the family farm, with chores, and attending a one-room school and Bills Creek in Scott Depot, she developed a dedication that served her throughout her life. She was a graduate of Winfield High School and was named the first Winfield Football Fan-of-the-Year in 1969. Following her business studies in high school, she began a career in accounting, retiring from the Children's Home Society as a bookkeeper.

She enjoyed going to the beach, quilting and crafting and most of all her great-grandson, Foster and the Pittsburgh Steelers. She and her son, Ron, were attended many football games from Winfield, WVU and Pittsburgh throughout the years. They were also very involved with Scouting and Grade school stuff. She could often be found raising money for good causes including the local library and town fairs.

Surviving are her son, Ronald K. Colby, III (Marilyn) of St. Albans; her grandchildren Andrew Colby and Annie Colby Hedges (Andrew); great-grandson, Foster Hedges.

Funeral service will be held at 2:30pm Sunday, February 12, 2017 at Lakeview

United Methodist Church, 2634 E. Parkview Dr., St. Albans with Pastor Richie McNiell officiating. Burial will follow in Cunningham Memorial Park, St. Albans.
