“ I know that it almost time for the memorial services. This is one of the hardest thing you will have to do in your life. I am saying prayers for you and your family. In time you will begin to remember the special times and fun times. If you need anything let me know and I will try to help you. I believe that Angie is in a wonderful place and with Easter approaching she will be at God's table, listening to choir of angels and thinking of you, family, and friends. Sincerely Susan Caldwell

“ Thinking of her, always pleasant when having a question that was work related or just a friendly conversation in hallway at the hospital. Such a niece and friendly person who GOD has decided to take and be with him for eternity.
 So sorry, that there will be a physical emptiness but not spiritual for she will always be there with you all. God Bless all of her family and friends.

“ Angie and I went to college at Marshall. She graduated from the Med Tech program a year before I did. We both went to work for CAMC, she went to Memorial and I went to Women and Children’s. It was nice knowing that she was always there. She was always very kind to me and asked me to stop by when I had the opportunity. I’m very sad that I did not make it in to see her the last time I was in Charleston. I’m very sad that I didn’t get to say goodbye and that I won’t ever have the chance to drop by to see her again.

She was an amazing person who was such a great mentor and leader.

Angie, you will be missed by so many people who’s lives you’ve touched.

Thank you for always being a friend.
