“ My heartfelt prayers for God’s comfort to each of you in Angie’s family. I knew her when we both were attending Scott Depot Christ Fellowship and won’t forget her kindness and love for others. She was an example of following Jesus with all her heart.

“ No words to describe our love for you dear friend. We admired your love for Jesus and desire to serve Him. The happiest I remember you was when you told me you would be working in the church kitchen. I've ordered a tree for you so your spirit will live forever. Miss you already.

“ Angie was the most giving person. She was always looking for a way to cook for & help others. We enjoyed many meals at her home which was always an event with many family members & friends present. She was loved by us & so many others & she will be so missed. But thankful she is not suffering now & we look forward to seeing her again in Heaven some day. We trust all her family & friends will be comforted & you have our prayers now & in the days to come. ❤️ Larry & Sara
