“ I can remember as a child the Sunday dinners at Grandma and Grandpa Tackett's house on Bridge Creek. Aunt Anna was always smiling and loved to joke with us kids. As years passed and family drifted apart we didn't get to see each other. I moved away after getting married but when I came back to St. Albans to visit my mother I often saw Aunt Anna and Aunt Marie together at Krogers, grocery shopping. It was really good to see them and Aunt Anna still had that wonderful smile. She will be missed by her family and friends. Rest in Peace Aunt Anna
