

Barbara Lois Harris

November 28, 1932 - February 13, 2015

Barbara Lois (Pierce) Harris, 82, passed away Friday Feb 13th at Hubbard Hospice House Charleston after a brief illness.

She was born November 28, 1932 in Henderson, WV. She was a sergeant with the WAC US Army Reserves. She was a lifetime homemaker and mother, who devoted many hours teaching people to read with Literacy Volunteers of America. She also enjoyed studying the Bible and teaching others about God through various church activities. She was rumored to be WVU Football's biggest fan.

She along with her husband Bill, was an amateur radio operator. Barbara was a member of the Tiskelwah Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star. She was preceded in death by her husband of 50 years William G. Harris. Left to cherish her memory are her two daughters Terri Harris-Downing (Charles) of Chillicothe OH and Stephanie L Salz (Greg) of Tempe AZ.

Grandchildren include Rachael Leigh (Richard), Lindsay Rowe (David), Cyrus Nafchi (Amy), Arturo, Adriana and Alexis Ruiz.

Great grandchildren Elizabeth and Thomas Rowe, and Amelia Nafchi. She also leaves a special niece Pamela Pierce-Sims.

A service to celebrate her life will be held Wed Feb 18th at 11a.m. at Chapman Funeral Home, Hurricane. Pastor Doug Jenkins officiating. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her. In lieu of flowers the family requests that donations be made to Hubbard Hospice House in Charleston or the American Lung Association.
