“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Barb and I were good friends in high school. Many of us tried to get in touch with her throughout the years, but we just didn't know how. She was such a joy to be around and she always lighted up the room with her smile. Angie Huber Callihan.

“ Barb was our District Coordinator for the Charleston District of Sherwin-Williams for many years, but to all of us she was more like our second Mom. She always had the time to listen whenever we had a problem and always gave great advise. She was my rock for many things, both personally and professionally. My heart goes out to her family. She was an exceptional lady and inspired me in many ways.

“ I worked with Barb many years ago at Embee's in downtown Charleston. She and I hit it off and became fast friends. Barb, Bob and I became close friends and always had the best times together. She was a truly beautiful person. We drifted apart and I truly regret that. I thought of her often. My thoughts and prayers are with Bob and Sarah.

RIP sweet friend.

“ I will always remember Barb as a strong willed lady. She always found the best in everything and everyone. She chose to serve the Lord along time ago, and now Heaven is her reward. She is probably walking through the beautiful garden smiling and enjoying all of it's beautiful flowers. Go rest my friend till someday we meet again.

To Bob and Sarah and the rest of her loved ones. You are in my thoughts and prayers. May God give you peace and reassurance that one day you will walk with her in heaven. Love and prayers.

“ Bob:

You will know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. I ran across something in a book I have that I think would be a comfort to me if I were in your situation. It goes like this:

"We are not citizens of this world trying to make our way to Heaven; we are citizens of Heaven trying to make it through this world. That radical Christian insight can be life changing. We are not to live so as to earn God's love, inherit Heaven, and purchase our salvation. All those are given to us as gifts; gifts bought by Jesus on the cross and handed over to us. We are to live as God's redeemed, as heirs of Heaven, and as citizens of another land - the Kingdom of God. We live as those who are on a journey home; a home we know will have the lights on and the door open and our Father waiting for us when we arrive. That means in all adversity our worship of God is joyful, our life is hopeful, our future is secure. There is nothing we can lose on earth that can rob us of the treasures God has given us and will give us."

This view of life and death dates back to 800 AD and originated on Landisfarne Island, called the Holy Island, which is a small tidal island located off the north west coast of England.

Barb is home!!

“ I will always remember Barbara as a kind and joyous person. She was a great neighbor and loved her two cats, one which she graciously took in that had been abandoned as a very young kitten. I also will never forget her wonderful laugh that was heard often. I never met a stronger person that endured what she went through to get to her lord in the next life.

“ Barb was one of the most beautiful women I have ever met. I missed my son, John Loeb and his family with a passion when he moved for Sherwin Williams to the East coast. Then I had the pleasure of meeting Barb on my 1st trip to W.V. I knew God had given us His very best to be a mentor and best friend to John and our family. My love and prayers are with you at this time. Mary Lou Loeb. Sioux Falls S.D.

“ I have so many precious memories with Barb. For those I am so thankful. One that comes to my mind often is a service project she and I were involved in. For years our small group at church would make Easter baskets for the women and children at a local women's shelter. Barb loved this project ! She was so diligent in getting us all prepared for the project, setting dates, and organizing items. She was so funny shopping, working her hardest to really buy accordingly to the child's age she had and finding the best supplies she could get. She always opened her home for us to collect and put the baskets together. We had so much fun together. She had such a big heart! I will miss her dearly!
