“ Bruce, Betsy, Stacey, and Julie I'm so sorry for the passing of Barry. I feel so blessed to have seen him at the Church dinner a couple of years ago.
He always had a smile on his face.
I'll always cherish our baseball days with all of us participating.
I can't begin to imagine how you all feel right now, but faith in the Lord will carry you through it.
You will all be in our prayers.

“ Bruce, Betsy, Stacy, and Julie. I am so sorry to hear about Barry passing. Barry and I had a lot of great memories together when we were young playing baseball for the Padres. Then we also reconnected and made some more great memories in our 20s hanging out at Sneakers, going to Cedar Point, going for a dip in your all's hot tub, and being over at Wayne and Christy's. Those are some of just a few memories that I'll cherish forever of Barry. Love you all. Ronnie Donahoe
