

Basil Meadows

January 24, 2012

Basil "Fred" Meadows, 65 of Winfield completed his earthly journey on Tuesday January 24, 2012 at the Hubbard Hospice House after a courageous battle with cancer. His parents Basil and Sally Meadows and his brothers Dale Meadows preceded him in death. Fred was a Christian of the Baptist faith. He graduated from Buffalo High School, Class of 1965 and served in the U.S. Air Force. He retired from the AEP John E. Amos plant in 2010 after 39 years of service. He is survived by his best friend and wife, Janet Meadows, his son Dean Vaughan and wife Anita, two special little blessings, that called him Papa, grandsons Nathan and William Vaughan. They were Papa's pride and joy. Also surviving are brothers; Leroy Meadows and wife Shirley of Eleanor, Donald "Choc" Meadows and wife Reva of Eleanor, Ronald Meadows and wife Gabby of Johnstown, Ohio, David Meadows of Red House, Bruce Meadows and wife Rosemary of Mooresville NC and sister Karen Kovalchik and husband Andy of Columbus OH. Also surviving are hosts of nieces, nephews and cousins. In honoring Fred's wishes his body has been cremated. A memorial service to honor the life of Fred Meadows will be held at 4:00pm Saturday January 28, 2012 at the Chapman Funeral Home, 3624 Winfield Road, Winfield with his brother the Rev. Leroy Meadows officiating. Family and friends my visit from 2-4pm Saturday at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial contributions in Fred's name to HospiceCare, 1606 Kanawha Blvd. W. Charleston, WV 25387.
