“ Beattie was a one-of-a-kind, instantly likeable individual who will always be a part of our life. One of the kindest and the most gentle persons we have had the privilege to have known with a laugh that that warmed us all. He was like a third big brother as I was growing up, taking me along on hilarious fishing, camping adventures, and providing stories that have been retold with laughter over the years. He always was quick to ask about all our extended family and children. And he was a fantastic husband to my big sister, father to his sons, and mentor to all his family. He could tease my mother to always bring a smile and laugh from her. We will all miss him as being a big piece of our lives.

“ I remember all the fun and laughs we had together. Even though I acted like I was mad when he teased me I kind of thought it was funny. You know being the oldest niece it would've have been right if he didn't tease me. I will miss you uncle Beattie.
