“ Betty was such a sweet and precious lady. She was involved in an interdenominational group for 18 years and served on the planning committee that entire time. Loved her spirit and sweetness. What a wonderful Christian lady she was. I loved her as a special friend. Sorry for us that will miss her -- even though I haven't seen her for some time. But have to remember she is in the presence of the Lord! Condolences for the family. Freda Hudson

Many memories of Betty. She was our neighbor for years but we also went to church together. It was always comfortable to see her and her family worshipping God together. Loved her dearly. Helen and Dick Kline.
