“ There were many women who influenced my life; my mother Doris Casto who will be 93 in July, Jewel Derrick, Ruth Lanham, Wilma Fisher and Betty Grant. Betty was a woman of character. She possessed an inner wisdom and she was kind and thoughtful. She shared the gift of her life with you and guided you on your way. I will always treasure her. My thoughts and prayers are with Debbie, Patty, and Eddie. All my love.

“ Such wonderful memories, especially during the days of visiting Emma Chapel with my grandmother, accompanying Calamity Jane (Deb) practices, years through high school when I was blessed to briefly be a part of the Grant Family; and Ed singing in my wedding. Betty was always such a blessing to be around and always gave great advice and encouragement. Upon reading her obituary I realized she was born the day before my dad was born, June 1929. What an amazing life. Many blessings and prayer as you celebrate her home going. Love to the family!
