“ *Carolyn, John, and the Kennedy family,
I was deeply saddened to hear that you lost your sweet mother. grandmother and great-grandmother. I enjoyed taking care of my fellow Kennedys at the pharmacy for many years. One of my fondest memories is of Miss Beulah telling me she would be proud to have me as a daughter and that feeling was shared by me.
Please know you have my deepest condolences and that you are in my prayers.*

“ Beulah was always dear to my heart and a very special face in my office. No matter how she felt, she always reached out her sweet, soft, frail hand to touch mine and ask me how I was doing. She was a passionate lady. Well rounded, with humor, class, humbleness and a heart for everyone. She always dressed so stylish with her matching accessories and looked so vibrant. It always made my day better when she came in. I often thought of her after I left my place of employment, as individuals like Beulah aren't easily forgotten. I am relieved to know she is no longer fighting. I have never seen someone be so close to the edge of eternity so many times, and bounce back with such spunk like she did. Thank you, Beulah for your Christmas fudge and chex mix. Nobody made it like you and Carolyn! Your treats were always treasured, but everyone in the office treasured you! Rest easy in the arms of Jesus, sweet Beulah. Much love to you, Carolyn, and your family. You took the very best care of her. -Sarah
