“ I want to offer my condolences for your loss. I recently lost my grandmother and I know it is one of the deepest pains. Something that has brought me comfort and a wonderful hope are the words at Isaiah 25:8 "He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe every tear from their eyes." How amazing to know that soon all this pain we feel will be gone because God will bring our dear loved ones back to life through a resurrection. I hope this can bring you some comfort as it has me.

“ Dear sweet Auntie, you were an amazing person. Funny, smart, strong and loving. I will never forget you insisting I meet a certain young man while visiting you in the summer of 1967. He turned out to be my husband and the father of my three children. You seen something in him and me that said..forever. I'm so glad I got to spend a week with you last month. We laughed and cried and told each other how much we loved each other. I know heaven had a great party when you got there. I bet my sweet husband and mother were at the front of the line to greet you. As sad as we are to lose you..I'm so happy you are reunited with your mommy and daddy. Love and miss you, Liz Ratliff Parsons
