*When God calls children to dwell with Him above,
We mortals sometime question the wisdom of His love.
For no heartache compares with the death of one small child
Who does so much to make our world, seem wonderful and mild
Perhaps God tires of calling the aged to his fold,
So He picks a rosebud, before it can grow old.*

*God knows how much we need them, and so He takes but few
To make the land of Heaven more beautiful to view.
Believing this is difficult still somehow we must try,
The saddest word mankind knows will always be "Goodbye."
So when a child departs, we who are left behind
Must realize God loves children, Angels are hard to find.*

“ Dear Chris,
We have never met, but I feel as though we would've been friends. You were young, talented, and amazing. For your story to end this way is a tragedy that affects thousands, near and far. You're famous! And not just for this story, but for the person you were and the talent you shared with this world. I bet you're experiencing an amazing time up there with amazing people you couldn't be with in this world. Rest In Paradise and comfort your family, one day we'll meet and I can tell you thanks for bringing so many people together in your honor.
