

Carl Robert "Bob" Bright

September 7, 2017

Carl Robert (Bob) Bright, 72, went home to be with the Lord September 7, 2017 at 3:10am, following a long battle with cancer.

He leaves his beloved wife of nearly 49 years, Mary (Mitchell) Bright, his daughter, Rosemary and her husband Timothy Keeling; two grandsons, Zachery and Joshua; one brother Floyd (Frog) Bright, and his darling poodle, Missy.

Preceding him in death were his adopted parents, Terresa Irene and William Robert Bright of Nitro; mother, Betty Talben of Clay and much beloved brother, Michael Edward Bright of Cross Lanes.

Bob was a member of Teays Valley Missionary Baptist Church. He retired from Putnam County Board of Education after 24 years of service. Bob was also an accomplished boxing coach and led many boxers to championship trophies with the B&M Boxing Club of Hurricane. He also maintained a busy nursing home ministry until his sickness forced him to discontinue this blessing.

An avid golfer for 50 years, Bob loved all of his golfing buddies; Roger Marian, George and Joshua Phelps, and Dave Deluca just to name a few that gave him several years of enjoyment on the golf course.

The family would like to thank, Hospice of Charleston nurses; Suzy, Connie and Holly, for their guidance and help to us during this time.

Visitation will be Sunday, September 10, 2017 at Chapman Funeral Home, Hurricane, from 2pm-4pm.

Funeral will be Monday, September 11, 2017 at 11am at Chapman Funeral Home, Hurricane, with Pastor Joe Fisher, loyal friend and coworker officiating. Burial will follow at Sycamore Cemetery.

“ My prayers are with the family and I'm glad for the few visits Bob and I shared together at his home. No doubt his "faith" was in Jesus and he is home now. I can't be there now for I'm out of town but may GODS peace be with you at this time!! Christian LOVE, Dan Cornell
