“ Dear Heavenly Father wrapped your arms around your child Carol Parker. She had to leave this world as you were calling her home. Watch over her family and comfort them. Let them find peace so their hearts can mend. Remember that they are your children too. One day you will call them home and there will be joy and happiness as they are reunited with their love ones.

“ My best memory of Carol was last summer when she was at Sara's bridal shower. We laughed so hard at the games Jessica had set up for us to play and Carol & I shared memories of when our girls were in school. We were all so happy that day.

“ We met on FB, and became very close. Carol to me was part of my family, she was my sister. She was a very loving, caring and headstrong woman, with a brilliant sense of humour. carol fought many battles to keep her family safe and well and was victorious with some of them. I shall miss her with all my heart. Carol you go and rest now and I wish you peace and love in the place you are now.

“ Mom, you were loved by so many. Especially by me. And I miss you so much. I will always remember baseball and football seasons. And I will always remember when you took Tracy and me to Kroger, and said wait here, I'm just going to get chicken. To come out about forty five minutes later with more than "just chicken". I love you Mom. Always.
