

Carolyn C. Luker

October 9, 2018

Carolyn C. Luker, 78 of Hurricane passed away October 9, 2018 at Teays Valley Center, Hurricane.

Carolyn was born in Gallipolis, Ohio and was a daughter of the late Lester and Juanita Clark.

She graduated from Nitro High School, class of 1958. Carolyn worked for the Kanawha County School Board for several years, before moving to Florida to work and later retire from the Sarasota County School Board. She is survived by her son; Skip and his wife Bri of Clovis, New Mexico; great-granddaughter, Toamo; caregivers and brother and sister-in-law, Ken and Janet Clark of Scott Depot, nieces; Kim Clark Gray and Sabrina Haddad; and first cousin; Mike Clark (Linda) of Scott Depot and cousin Darla Hall of Scott Depot.

The family would like to give a special thank you to Chris and all the staff of Fresenius Kidney Care, Hurricane and Genesis Healthcare, Teays Valley Center for all their love and compassion. The family would also like to thank Dr. Michael Noto for his going the extra mile to reassure and calm Carolyn at her appointments. Each of you, and everything you have done, has meant the world to the family.

According to Carolyn's wishes, her body has been donated to West Virginia University Human Gift Registry.

You may share memories of Carolyn by visiting ChapmanFuneralHomes.com
Chapman Funeral Home, family-owned and located at 3941 Teays Valley Road, Hurricane is honored to serve Carolyn's family.

Tribute Wall

“ Carolyn C. Luker

October 06, 2023 at 08:41 AM

“ My heart sank when I saw this. My condolences to Carolyn's family. She was the kindest woman I ever had the privilege of knowing. She was the best mother-in-law ever. I truly loved my mom.

Kimberly Dove - December 07, 2018 at 06:43 PM