

Carolyn Sue Henson

April 28, 1942 - August 12, 2023

Carolyn Sue Henson 82, of Winfield, West Virginia passed away peacefully on August 12, 2023 surrounded by her daughters at the Hubbard Hospice House in Charleston. Carolyn had several health challenges in recent years, including dementia, strokes, and diabetes.

Known affectionately as Mom or Maw Maw, Carolyn was blessed with a full life, a wonderful family, and supportive friends. Some of those she is now reunited with in eternity. She loved her children, grandchildren, and their spouses tremendously.

In her 20s, Carolyn worked as a beautician in St. Albans. After marrying her husband, John D. Henson, Jr., who preceded her in death, she became a full-time wife, mother, and homemaker. She is survived by her daughters: Tammy Holston (Ronald) of Winfield, West Virginia and Christa Currey (Kevin) of Morgantown, West Virginia; her granddaughters: Erika Holston of Winfield, Rachel Sheets (Brad) of Culloden, West Virginia, and Emily Vincent of Morgantown; and her great-grandchild Owen Sheets; her brothers: James Scott (Brenda) and Jerry Scott (Terry) of St. Albans; sisters-in-law: Barbara Scott of St. Albans and Charlene Akers Williams of Raeford, North Carolina; as well as numerous cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

In addition to her husband, Carolyn was preceded in death by her father and mother, Arthur Scott and Reba Rogers and her brothers, Clinton and Stephen Scott.

Honoring Carolyn's wishes, she will be cremated. While there won't be a public service—we request everyone who knew her to remember her in their own unique way. Those wishing to commemorate Carolyn can make a contribution to Putnam Aging in Nitro, Hubbard Hospice House in Charleston, or the John Henson Senior Center in Hurricane, West Virginia—a tribute to her late husband. Her laughter and love have left an indelible mark on us, and we will forever hold her close in our hearts.

Anyone wishing to leave an online memory may do so by visiting Carolyn's tribute page at: www.chapmanfuneralhomes.com.

Chapman Funeral Home 3941 Teays Valley Road Hurricane, WV 25526 is honored to handle the Henson family arrangements.
