“ Pete and I were very good friends and grew up together in #3 Camp at Mallory. We were in the Scouts together and played ball in the sand lots of the camp. We roamed the mountains on hikes and camped out in the near by hills around our homes. We were adventurers as young boys and Pete was a friend you always enjoyed being with. I will miss him and have thought of him many times during my life and all the time we spent together growing up. RIP my friend.
