“ Cecil was my father in law but he has always loved me as if I were his own daughter. He & Christine blessed me with the love of my life and Randy is so much like his daddy.

Cecil was a good man. I know that sounds simple but those who knew him will understand that those words plain and simple discribed him perfectly. He loved Christine with all his heart. Things weren't always easy, illnesses took a toll on both of them but they stood beside one another for 58 years of marriage. What a blessing to have a love like that. Cecil loved his family with all his heart, Randy & Shane were his pride and joy. He was very proud of both his boys. He loved his grandchildren, Josh & Promise beyond measure & their spouses Tracie & Jesse too and his great grandson Lyric was the light of his eye. Lyric loved getting jelly beans from Pawpaw. Cecil & his sister Betty Jean had a friendship I'm sure all brothers and sisters dream of having. He had many friends but a couple that he talked about often and I know we're very special to him were Carl, his old neighbor and his buddy he use to always go to Krogers with and tell big stories with and his old Army buddy Donald & his wife June. He loved tell us old Army stories. Cecil always loved his flowers and his yard was always beautiful. He loved watching the Cincinnati Reds and Marshall. Anyone that met him always loved him. He was always so giving & helpful to anyone that needed it.

I feel blessed to have known him. I'm so thankful that his son, Randy has his kind loving heart. A piece of Cecil will live on through him

I love you Cecil & you will always be in my heart.

All my love, Cherie

“ Chris, Randy, Shane and all of the family, me and Donald are heart broken over the passing of Cecil. Donald met Cecil in 1961 at Fort Hood Texas as they were both in the Army. They have remained life long friends every since. Cecil called about three weeks ago and they talked for a long time. He never failed to ask about our girls and their families. Kim and Kristi are heart broken. He and Chris always made them feel special. As like always, we were planning on trying to get up there to see them but have waited too late for our buddy. He always called us if the weather was bad here or if he wanted to discuss Alabama football with Donald. We are surely going to miss these calls. May God wrap his big arms of love around all of you during this difficult time. Just know we love you all very much. June and Donald, Gadsden, Alabama
