“ Cecil was 84 Lumber St Albans...and at 84's Hdqtrs there is a huge picture of their #1 salesman: Cecil Gravely. He hired my brother in the 60s, and a lot of WV hires Joe Hardy assigned them to different stores around the country. I worked for 84, and having known Cecil over 50 years I consider him a friend...a hard working company man,

“ Cecil was a true husband, father, uncle and dear friend to me and my cousins. His humor was always present and made us all laugh. My kids and their cousins enjoyed summer days at their pool as children. He lived his wife, my Aunt Hilda, as much as anyone could love. I will never forget the dinners at Applebees where he would pick up the check for all of us. He will be missed and kept alive through memories that will last forever. Here's to Cecil and Aunt Hilda 💜
