“ I think of Chad often. I remember when we were in NC. He borrowed my truck to go hunting because he didn't want to take his little car, I think it was a corolla maybe. I think he had it for a week. I wasn't worried. He came back and he was really upset about a ding in the door. I let him know it was there, my dad had did it last time I was home. He didn't believe me. He thought I was being nice. He was sure he had done it. He was honest and genuine to a fault.

My happiest Memory of him is when he walked out for his wedding back home in West Virginia and saw a bunch of us that had made the trip from NC. He had no idea we were coming. The joy and love in his eyes when he saw us is something I carry with me.

I miss you and love you Brother. See you on the other side.

“ I use to work with Chad at Cherry Point. He was our designated trainer for our CPR and first aid class. He was a natural and enjoyed sharing his experiences as a rescue worker and Marine. He loved to do whatever he could for the chance to help somebody. I'm sure the knowlege he taught to hundreds of people will be paid forward for many, many years to come and will make a difference! Always had a smile on his face. So sorry to the family and friends.

“ Certainly, as anyone that knew Chad, we are all deeply saddened by the loss of such a wonderful friend, co-worker and family member.
Chad was always a highlight of our day at the Mid-Atlantic Electronic Warfare Range. Generally, Chad was mild mannered. Every once in a while we experienced that fire and Marine influence. Chad never did anyone wrong.
Our thoughts and prayers go out to all that knew and loved Chad.

“ I'm so blessed to call him my friend. So glad we kept in touch over the years. Chad and I traveled from NC to WV together, called it our "going home" trips because that was it was for both of us. I close my eyes and see his smile, hear his laugh, and I will hold all the memories we shared close to my heart forever. Thank you for sharing your special gift from God. You raised a strong loving man who heart to help other at times would leave me speechless. Sending loving prayers of strength and comfort to you and yours from this Charleston native and a special prayer to his Huntington Family who he loved more than words could express but his face said it all when we crossed the state line.

“ The news of Chad's passing has stopped me in my tracks. I served with Chad in the Marine Corps and remember him being one of the most cheerful, trustworthy and kind individuals among anyone I served with. I say these things honestly and sincerely. Chad was a good guy, a guy you tried to emulate, a true man's man. I'm truly saddened to hear of his passing. As I raise my young son's I will refer to my memories of Chad to help guide me toward raising good, honest men. To his parents, thank you for raising a man who had an influence on me and subsequently an influence on my two son's. - John Fisher served on the 24th Marine Expeditionary Unit with Chad.

Chad and I served together in the 24th Marine Expeditionary Unit in 1998. He was the guy you always relied on to keep things moving, positive and enjoyable. Ship life and time out in the field could get pretty boring at times, but Chad always had his one liner jokes for just about any situation. Those jokes helped all of us pass the time and made for a heck of an adventure. The best time of my Marine Corps career was being with the 24th MEU, and it's because of guys like Chad. Though we only shared a brief time together as Marines, I will always remember Chad and how we always joked and cut up together. I have some video footage and a few other pictures of those days. I will try to make them available to the family somehow. My thoughts and prayers are with you!
