“ Mrs. Charlean Owens had an impact on more lives than she realized. I am a fifth grade teacher in the Columbus, Georgia area. Her legacy lives on in my classroom every day. You see, Mrs. Owens was my first grade teacher at Lakewood Elementary School in the early 1970's. She was the best. While I had many good teachers, she was a great teacher! She saw potential in me and would not let up until she saw that I reached that potential. I try to share that with my students every day. Mrs. Owens' legacy touches the lives of my 57 students here in Georgia every day. I try to take Mrs. Owens' lead and teach them to take pride in their work and be the very best they can be, both in academics and conduct. Mrs. Owens instilled that in me. I love you, Mrs. Owens, and thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for taking the time to make sure that I would be successful. My class website is dedicated to Mrs. Owens. You may check it out at www.mrring.weebly.com.

My thoughts and prayers are with the wonderful Owens family right now.

“It's so very hard to put into words just how special a lady Mrs. Owens was to me, as I know she was to so many others. She was always so loving, giving and gracious and had such a sweet heart. I had the good fortune to grow up around her and her cherished family. You could tell just how much she loved them and what they meant to her. In addition, she always made me feel like a very welcome part of her family. As kids, she always took time to take us places, have parties, sleepovers, special shopping trips and lunch dates and continued to celebrate all our special occasions with us as we grew up. Her smile would warm your heart when you entered a room and she made you feel like the most loved person, when it was in fact she that was so loved. I will always be grateful to her for showing me the kind of person I wanted to strive to be. She was married to my awesome Spanish teacher, Mr. Owens (I just can't call them anything else), and I obviously followed her lead by marrying a teacher myself and it has worked out as well for me as it did for her. She gave me the most incredible lifelong friend in her daughter, Teresa, and a very special and kind godson, Justin, along with an adventurous and fun-loving Ben. She felt extremely fortunate to have Jimmy for a son-in-law and he was an instant part of the family. When Mike bought sweet Annie into the family and beautiful Whitney and handsome Chris (so much like his dad) were born, her life became even more busy, full and happy. Good fortune continued to fall on this family as Pamela and Rumi joined the family, and then along came adorable Kyleigh, Lucy and Declan. I have enjoyed watching her family grow as I know she did and she was so very proud of each of them for their own special gifts. With all the love and happiness shared in this family, she was so happy with her life. She will be so very missed but please know that this is just a physical goodbye, not a spiritual farewell, for she will always be in your hearts and when you meet again, it will be like you were never apart.

*I love you all,
Sheryl*
