“ It breaks my heart to hear of Evan's passing. I know I hadn't seen him much and I never met his wife and children, but I do know how much he was loved by his sister and niece and mom and dad. I have fond memories of fun times at DC and Louise's house and playing catch with Evan in the backyard. He was always smiling and fun to be around. It is my prayer that your hearts will find solace knowing that someday we will be gathered together again. Until then-much love to all of you. Respectfully, Andrea (Price) Ellingboe

“ Just want to tell you that your family is in my prayers. Evan was always a good neighbor and I am glad I met and knew him. He always waved when I passed by. I would have been at the funeral but I was in Florida.

“ I was out of town with my family when I received the news of Evan's passing. Words can't describe my shock and sorrow. I am so sorry that I was unable to attend the funeral. Evan and I worked together for many years at Columbia. He was an intelligent, hard working, honest and compassionate young man. I am a better man for having known him and I hope that he considered me one of his dear friends as I did him. My deepest sympathy goes out to all of his family. He will be truly missed.

“ My heart is broken for your loss. Evan truly was the greatest of gentlemen. He was respected and loved by all that knew him. I rejoice in his homecoming and his freedom from this difficult world, but will be in prayer for all of you, his family, that he loved so dearly. I wish I could be there, but will be in my prayers.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Evan when he began at Columbia in the "Step" program. Evan always had a good attitude, willing to do and learn. This has continued even here in the last few months as we worked on some new projects.

So now, Evan, family and friends, may peace go with you on your journey. We are all just tourists here, gathering experiences and flowers as we pass by - so we can count our friend as one of the happy experiences.
