“ Papaw Charlie was unlike anyone I've ever met. His personality and spirit was so vibrant that it's hard to believe he is gone. I don't think I will ever be able to forget the warmth of his hands, the sound of his voice, or the prickle of his beard. I'm thankful I was able to spend 21 years with the best grandpa I could ever deserve, I just wish God would have allowed us more years to spend together. At any rate, I will forever treasure my memories and will look forward to seeing him again in Heaven. ”
