“ There are no words written that can comfort a parent when they have lost their child. But this true life experience found in Luke 7:11-17 will come true. It shows the unlimited power Jesus will have over mankind enemy death. Please search for many more (John 11:1-44) for this will heal your broken heart .

“ I am so very sorry to hear of Chelsea's passing....my thoughts and prayers are with you all !!! She and my daughter Kayla (Stamper) went to school together starting in pre-school at Lakewood, I remember seeing her for the first time at that young age, seems like yesterday. Again, I am so very sorry and pray for God to comfort each of you during this difficult time and in the days to come.

“ Chelsea was such a sweet young lady. I had her in class at Lakewood Elementary School. You were all such wonderful & beautiful young ladies. Chelsea always had a smile on her face and a positive attitude about life. I was so sad to learn of her passing. My thoughts and prayers are with your family. May God ease your pain and sorrow through this difficult time in your lives. Chelsea will live on forever in your hearts and precious memories.

“ We had a blast in high school. I was lucky enough to have some college classes with you at State too. Saying this is tragic is saying the least. You had the ability to make anyone laugh, to make everyone smile. I am blessed to have had the chance to know you. I pray for your family, your friends, and for your soul. May God be with you all. I love you, always.
