“ Doug, boys and your families, We are thinking of you during this time of loss. Cheryl was so much fun to be around and we often think of your family. Now we know we will never get the chance to spend time with her again. For that I am deeply sad. I hope the memories of her bring a smile to your lips, as they do to ours.

“ I'm sorry to hear this news. We worked next door to each other at the old Buffalo High School. Cheryl was very nice to us all and kindly hosted staff and students in her room for meetings and celebrations.
