

Cheryl Stewart

December 27, 1961 - January 6, 2017

Cheryl Lynn Stewart, 55 of Poca went home to be with the Lord, Friday January 6, 2017 at her home surrounded by her family after a six-year battle with cancer. She has fought the good fight, finished her course and kept the faith.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Hollis and Frances Gillespie.

Cheryl was a caretaker in every sense of the word. Caring for her family and friends was everything to her. From cooking wonderful meals and taking care of her grandbabies to her work as a home health aide and assistant administrator at Angel Avenue, Cheryl's way to show she loved you was making sure you had everything you needed. When Cheryl became ill, her husband

Terry stepped in and made sure she had everything she needed. He became not only the only man she has ever loved but the rock she leaned on when treatments and diagnosis became overwhelming. She and Terry are members at Elizabeth Baptist Church, Bancroft.

Cheryl is survived by her loving husband of 38 years Terry Stewart; son, TJ and his wife Brittney of Ripley and daughter, Brandy and her husband Scott Foster of Cincinnati, Oh. She was a devoted "maw maw" to Hollie, Jordan, Jacob and Ryker. In addition she is survived by siblings, Susan Vincent of Nitro and Tommy Gillespie (Karen) of Poca and was known as “Sissy” to her nieces and nephews, Amy Jo Sergent, Brian Sergent, Tommy Gillespie and Bobbie Jo Bartram.

A memorial service to celebrate Cheryl’s life will be held 6:00pm Monday, January 9, 2017 at Elizabeth Baptist Church, 410 Washington Street, Bancroft with Pastor Jeff Arthur officiating.
