“ This is shocking news to me and I am so saddened. I knew Chris back in 1979 when he was in college and sharing an apt on Washington Ave. I was 15 at the time and lived nextdoor (duplex). I was madly in love with him but I was only 15 so he was a few years older than me. (I was crushed and heartbroken). Over the years I had often wondered what he had done with his life. Looking him up this evening, I can't believe what I have found. I am so sad for his loving family. I realize this happened years ago, but I just wanted to post my condolences to the family. The pics on the FB page show how much love the family shared. Rest In Peace my friend! Glad to see that you gave your life to God! Amen!!

“ Virgie and daughters,

I offer my heart felt sympathy to you during this difficult time of your loss. I pray that God will comfort you with the fact of knowing Chris is with Jesus now and out of pain and suffering. I know you will miss him, but know that you will see him and be with him again some day. I will keep your family in my prayers. Chris was my cousin and although we didn't grow up together, his being 9 years younger than I, I do remember meeting him and talking to him at one or two of the Joyce family reunions. God bless and keep you and your children.
