

Cindy Lea Rowsey Parish

December 22, 1961 - May 10, 2016

Cindy Lea Rowsey Parish, 54, of Hurricane entered into Heaven and the arms of Jesus on May 10, 2016. Heaven is rejoicing, gaining an angel.

Words cannot express the kindness, caring, loving, Godly spirit that she lived daily.

Her memory as the love of his life, will not be forgotten with her husband of 38 years, Curtis Parish. She is also survived by her mother, Louella Godby of St. Albans, her sisters and brothers, Lou Ann (Eladio) Mazon of Gassaway, Sandra (Tim) Dunlap, Melanie (Ken) Miller both of North Carolina, Janie (Greg) Raynes of Nitro, Lois (Buster) Beeker of North Carolina, Jean Ann Jones of St. Albans, Glen Godby Jr. of St. Albans, Tim (Sherri) Godby of North Carolina, Greg (Kim) Godby of Kentucky, and 41 nieces and nephews who she cared for and loved as not only an aunt, but a surrogate mother.

Life will never be the same without you in our lives, but your memory will always be with us all...

A Celebration of Cindy's life will be held at 6:00pm Saturday May 14, 2016 at Bartlett-Chapman Funeral Home, St. Albans.

Visitation will be held two hours prior to the service Saturday at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers the family asks that you please make a donation to St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital at www.stjude.org in her memory. Cindy's secret ministry and passion was to find a cure for cancer and these donations will aid in that cause.

You may also share memories or condolences with the family at www.chapmanfuneralhomes.com.

Bartlett-Chapman Funeral Home, family-owned and located at 409 Sixth Avenue, St. Albans is honored to serve the Parish family.

“ I look forward to seeing Cindy again. What is so tragic and sad has turned to good. Just knowing Cindy is in the arms of our Lord and totally happy and at peace is a great comfort to us all. My heart breaks as I think of my sweet brother and Cindys mom Lou and her sisters and their families. Pray for us today.

“ Cindy will be so missed .. we are blessed to have known her these past 20 years . She had a great big heart ..she and I have worked with the children in church, bible school and fun activities over the years .. I remember Cap and my husband Toby went fishing in the mountains and their car broke down. They call Cindy and I to come and get them knowing neither one of us drove much at that time and of course we got lost !!! and found them about 5 hours later waiting for us outside Applebee's.. I don't think Cindy and I ever lived that down .
The real reason we missed our turn was we we're talking and sharing our hearts on that day ..
We love you guys .. God needed another angel in heaven so Cindy went home . When we all get to heaven what a day that will be !!!!!

“ I am so sorry for your families loss, I did not know Cindy, but I was second vehicle behind the accident and saw and I sat there and prayed to God to be with who was in the car and surround that person in His loving arms. I have since then at different times of day/evening just cry. I am thankful that she knew Jesus Christ as her personal savior and just reading about her warms me heart to the life of testimony she has left. We are called by God to love one another and on May 10th on Rt. 60, God put love in my heart for a someone I did not know. My prayers are with your family during this time.

“ I remember Cindy meeting Cindy at my Grandma Bays birthday party. She and Cap had just gotten married if I remember correctly. I immediately liked her because she was so sweet, kind, and loveable. My Grandma feel in love with her too. We were so happy to consider her family and did so from that day forward. I am a Facebook user and I think you can learn a lot about a person just by what they say and share. Cindy didn't have a lot of words to post, but she continually shared posts requesting prayers for a sick child that she didn't even know personally. She always was the first to like something you shared. And the other thing she consistently shared was recipes. Just from her being a Facebook friend everyone she was friends with wether they knew her personally knew the most important and the best way to describe her. Humble, Godly, Caring, Loving, Passionate, and a she loved to cook. I was privileged to witness and see this first hand from the first time I meet her. Most importantl to her was her love of God, her husband Cap, whom she cherised and was so happy being his wife, and her dear Mother, sisters and her family. My heartfelt condolences to all those who will forever miss this precious child of God
