

Clarence Eugene Kemper

May 30, 1930 - August 10, 2013

Clarence Eugene Kemper, 83, of Scott Depot went home to be with Jesus on August 10, 2013.

He was born May 28, 1930 and was preceded in death by his parents, Clarence and Glenna Kemper and a sister, Eula Cole.

He is survived by the love of his life; wife, Georgia; three sons, Gene and Brenda Kemper of Denmark, South Carolina; Dan and Pam Kemper of St. Albans and Tim Kemper of Hurricane. He has eight grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren. Also surviving are two brothers; Elbert and Iris Kemper of Elkhart, Indiana and Brycie and Linda Kemper of Osceola, Indiana.

He was a member of the Church of God Prophecy, Charleston. He has been a Christian for 64 years. He was a great worker and prayer warrior in the church. He worked in the coal mines early on, then moved to Indiana where he worked at Western Rubber Company and Bayer Corp. where he made Bugs Bunny and Flinstone Vitamins.

Visitation will be held from 6-8pm Tuesday August 13, 2013 at Chapman Funeral Home, 3941 Teays Valley Road, Hurricane.

Funeral service will be held at 11:00am Wednesday August 14, 2014 at the funeral home with Pastor Sue Cook officiating. Entombment will follow in Sunset Memorial Park, South Charleston.

We want to thank everyone at Hubbard Hospice House for the great care they gave him. Our loss is Heaven's gain.

“ Gene, you and your extended family are all in our thoughts and prayers. I didn't know your Dad personally but it sounds like he was a great father and what a wonderful Christian example to his family, friends and community. We're sending our deepest sympathy, love and prayers. Joan Baer Allberry and your GHS Class of 68

“ I don't care where ever we met, whether it'd fir the Gray dinner or a family reunion, or even our annual Christmas dinner, you never ever seen one without the other, Georgia and Eugene, he made sure he always gave you a big hug him and Georgia and told you they loved you, he will sally be missed, my pursuers will be with the family we have lost so much and so many I'm such a short time, may God comfort them all.

Love, Kathy Foster
