“ Dad there is so many things I can say about you. I miss you so much, as I sit and wonder how I can move forward without you it seems impossible. Dad you were the one that told me no matter what was going on in life. "Caca you just can't lay down and give up you have to find the strength to be strong". We could sit around for hours while we you listened to the dreams and hopes I had. You always would tell how if I just kept pushing I will get it. I remember just sitting around a you would show my cards tricks over and over. There are so many special things we shared. You were always who I would turn to for advise, you would never tell me what to do but you would guide me so I could make my decision. You were a father to three kids but you was a dad to anyone that needed one. I will hold on to every word, hug, and love you showed and gave to me. Dad I love you more than words can say. When you walked me down the isle you told me you would catch me if I fell. I know as my angel you will catch me when I fall.

From the time we were growing up....you stayed with us.....from D.C. with you guys working..trying to pay me to cleanlol..when we moved up here, all the funny stories I'll never forget..Car in the house.....horse on the porch.....watching the way you always cared for Joanie and children....so much love always around you and you were my voice of reason.....told you everything and you just said, don't worry bout it babe..always comforting to everyone's life that you touched...and whatta smile..... You are So Loved! Everyone's Loss...I will continue to pray for All of Us.....I think We are All Still in Shock...This is gonna take some time....I Love You Always...Not Just Because You are My Cousin.... You Have Always Been My Friend....Get Rest Babe....
