

Clyde Grow

January 12, 1921 - September 25, 2017

Clyde Grow, of Scott Depot, passed away September 25, 2017, at Teays Valley Center, Hurricane.

He was born in Morgantown on January 12, 1921 to the late Adam and Lucy Grow. Clyde was also preceded in death by his wife, Barbara Grow; son, Richard Adam Grow; sisters Margaret Brown and Betty Lou Frost; and brother Adam Grow.

Clyde is survived by his children, John Grow (Joyce) of Charleston, Sandra Bishop (David) of Teaneck, NJ, Rebecca Harrah (Fred) of Scott Depot, Linda Tull of Elkton, MD, Jane Grow of Muncie, IN, and Patricia Spout of Oxford, PA; grandchildren Douglas, Marc, Barbara, Matthew, Malorie, Becky, John II, Beth, Diane, Emily, Holt, Lauren, and Travis; 19 great-grandchildren; and a host of extended family and friends.

Clyde was a decorated WWII veteran who served in the U.S. Navy, and was a Christian by faith. He was an amazing family man, and will be missed by all who knew him. He and his wife leave behind a large family that was shaped by their faith and trust in God. Their family was their highest priority and they leave a living legacy in their children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and generations to come.

A private service will be held by the family at a later date.

“ I have great memories of the Grow family. Growing up in the little town of Reedsville, WV. and playing with Sandy and Becky, also Linda on the Grow farm. As I look back to my childhood your family has a special place in my heart. Your dad had a long life as did my mom, Teresa. She was 97 when she passed away. As one grows older you appreciate the folks who made a difference in your life. Sweet memories Grow family.

“ *To the family of Clyde Grow
Our prayers are with you in this difficult time of loss. Your father was a fine, honorable, gentleman.
It has been many, many years since our family has had contact with you all, children of Barbara and Clyde.
Our father is Robert Weidlich. My younger sisters and I would come to your house with our parents "Bob" and Mabel Weidlich. Our fathers worked together in the investment business many years ago.
My sisters, Bobbie (Weidlich) Parker, Ann (Weidlich) Greer, and I, Judy (Weidlich) Mulkey enjoyed our time at your home playing with you all around 1966-1968 (approximately).
We just want you to know we are thinking of you all and remembering you in prayer.*

“ *May the love of God surround you and your family during this difficult time,
May you come to know that the love of God is with you always,*

May your memories of Clyde Grow, give you peace, comfort and strength...

*Rest now in the arms of our Lord your mission on earth is complete.
I thank you for your service to our Country and my Freedom. You will not be forgotten..*
