“ Paul, John, and family, Read in the paper about your mom's promotion to glory, while there is sadness for those left behind, tonight there is a celebration in heaven for the homecoming of God's saint. Your mother and dad were a great inspiration for a young minister during the 1960s. I praise God for saints like them.
THE BUTTERFLY.

I stood in the yard, heart heavy with despair. Hope was gone, my spirit spent, unsure that God was there. My unseeing eyes gazed outward while inward thoughts ran wild. Chasing elusive answers, My soul, by doubt, beguiled. Then my mind came into focus, as a movement caught my eye---- among the flowers was a tiny butterfly. It looked like a bit of sunshine, dancing in the breeze. Darting in and among the flowers, it fluttered by with ease. Entranced by this tiny miracle, suddenly I knew that Good in all His mercy, would gently guide us through. The God who made the universe, the God who created Clyde, the God who made the butterfly, Set her spirit free. Psalm 24:3,4; Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in His holy place? They that have clean hands and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up their soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. Hebrews 12:22, But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the Living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumeral company of angels.
