“ There are not enough words to express how much I will miss my namesake and wonderful, loving Aunt Connie. It's very hard to not be there in person with all of the family. I will miss our long conversations and the loving connection I felt with her even over the miles.

I know she is getting many kisses and hugs from all of those who have gone before her, and we will see her again some day.

Love, prayers, and kisses to all of the family and friends today and always.

“ I want to take a moment to offer my deepest sympathies for the loss of your dear loved one. I know how truly heartbreaking times like these can be. The bible assures us of a hope for the future in Re 21:3-4, "3 With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. 4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

I've found this to being much comfort and I hope that you will also.

“ My heart was sadden to learn of your mother's passing but, oh, what a reunion there is going on in heaven. Your great grandparents; grandparents and mother and dad were a big part of my life growing up and the memories I carry with me are so sweet and wonderful. They were very close to my grandparents and parents and your mother sent me wonderful cards and notes during my battle with cancer. Losing your mother's presence on this earth leaves another void in my heart. Know that I am praying for all of you and may our gracious Lord and Savior keep His loving arms around you during the days to come and give you Peace. With loving thoughts, Janice Bowles Watsell

“ Your mom was very special to me during our time in Belle. It seems I have followed in her footsteps becoming a nurse later in life as well. I remember her excitement after becoming a nurse and watching an open heart surgery and how fascinated she was with the experience. I loved her smile and laugh and have thought of her often through the years. I am saddened that she is no longer among us. My prayers are will you all.
